

BYLAW NO. 2003-02A BYLAW TO PROVIDE FOR FIRE PROTECTION

WHEREAS The Rural Municipality Act, 1989 provides that a council may by bylaw provide for the prevention and suppression of fires and provide for services of any kind at the site of an emergency;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Rural Municipality of Cymri No. 36 in the Province of Saskatchewan, enacts as follows:

1. This bylaw shall be cited as the "Fire Protection Bylaw".
2. In this bylaw the expressions:
 - (a) "person" includes a corporation and the heirs, executors, administrators or other legal representatives of a person,
 - (b) "municipality" shall mean the Rural Municipality of Cymri No. 36,
 - (c) "call for service" shall mean any call, request or demand for services made pursuant to this bylaw or any other fire and emergency related bylaw, and any voluntary response by a person who provides prevention or suppression of fire or emergency services without request,
 - (d) "person or persons who receive the service" shall mean and include any registered owner, lessee or occupier of the land or property who was adversely affected by the fire for which a call for services was made, and the person or persons responsible for causing or creating the fire.
3. The municipality is authorized to enter into agreements for the receiving of fire fighting or fire prevention services or emergency services on any terms that may be agreed upon including the payment of charges with any other municipal corporation.
4. Any member of council of the municipality may in the event of an emergency, contract on behalf of the municipality any person to provide fire fighting or fire prevention services.
5. The establishment of the Midale/Cymri Fire and Rescue Board on June 7, 1996 by Bylaw No. 96-02, is hereby ratified and the municipality is authorized to pay for services provided thereunder. The municipality is also authorized to pay for services provided pursuant to Sections 3 and 4 of this bylaw.
6. The municipality may assess and levy the costs of any service provided by the Midale/Cymri Fire and Rescue Board or other person pursuant to this bylaw which has been incurred on a call for service by any person to the person or persons who receive the services, in such proportions as the municipality may by resolution determine.
7. Any amount with respect to any service provided to a person within the municipality that remains unpaid at the end of the year in which the service was provided shall at the end of that year be added to and form part of the taxes on any land or improvement owned by the person.
8. The municipality may levy a tax sufficient to defray the costs of fire protection.
9. This bylaw shall come into force and take effect on the day of final passing thereof.
